Topic homework

I have been so impressed and also thankful, with the time and effort each of you (and adults!) have put into your topic homework projects. It has been wonderful to see the things you get up to outside of school, as well as looking at the beautiful writing and presentation of your homework.

The children love sharing their projects in class and also enjoy sharing them with Mrs. Woolley and the rest of the school in our Friday Celebration Assembly. I'm looking forward to seeing your 'Enchanted Woodland' Topic homework this term. Keep up the super work! ☺

General notices

- We still have not had one full week of 100% attendance in Year One, so let's try make this happen in our last term together, please!

Any questions or concerns, please come see me.

Thank you, Miss Lee ☺
