

Curriculum Overview

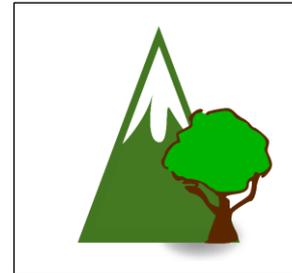

Dear Children, Parents and Carers,

11th January 2019

I hope you have had a lovely Christmas break. I am very much looking forward to investigating the topic 'Misty Mountain Sierra' with the children this term. Exploring the geographical location of mountain ranges and the physical process of formation, along with water cycles in science; continuing from the children's previous topic of potions.

Curriculum Overview

- English -poems, recounts and reports.
- Maths - measure and place value.
- Science - Water cycles.
- RE - The community of Islam
