

Friday 4th May is Pyjama Day!

To celebrate the opening of our new library we are inviting children to come to school in their pyjamas. In the afternoon we will be sharing bedtime stories and having milk and biscuits.

We are inviting the family of the late Mrs Sue Rockall to join us in our celebration and to officially open the new library.

We are asking parents, if you feel you can, to donate a new story book to our library. These will be given a special label in recognition of the family that have donated the book.

The Travelling Book Fair

The Travelling Book fair will be in school from 21st June to the 28th June. This is an opportunity for you to buy books for your children and will be open after school. School is then able to purchase books based on the commission we make.

Bananagrams!!

Children in Years 5 and 6 are still enjoying the bananagrams challenge. We are down to our quarter finalists.

Dates for your Diary

May 4th – Pyjama Day in school

21st to 28th June – The Travelling Book fair will be in school.

“Books Wanted!”

Thank you for all the donations so far!

If you are sorting through old books please send any no longer required in to school.

These will be used in the school library for other children to read and enjoy.

Parent Consultation Evenings

Questionnaires will be available on both of the parent consultation evenings asking for your views on reading at home and in school. Please take the time to complete one of these as you wait for your appointment.
