| Friendship Christians believe they can all call God their friend because of the relationship made possible through Jesus. Reflecting as a Whole School community: Some questions to consider: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • How does the school support and encourage friendship bonds by providing opportunities for children to work cooperatively and collaboratively in pairs and in groups. • How does the school community find ways to support and include pupils who might be left out of friendship groups. • How does the school help pupils to restore broken friendships and promote reconciliation. • How does the school help children know where they might receive advice and support if they need it? | Hope Christians see their hope in God's promise "that love and goodness have, and will ultimately, overcome all evil". This hope is manifested in the life, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. Reflecting as a whole school community: Some questions to consider: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • How does the school promote a vision of a hopeful future? • How does the school help children to understand that there is a chance of a new beginning and a fresh start in every situation? • How does the school help the children to understand how they can play their part in creating a more sustainable environment and a better society? • How does the school help pupils to understand how they are citizens of the world and that this citizenship brings challenges and responsibilities? |
