Matters for Discussion	Notes	Actions
Minutes from last meeting	Discussed
Wet play games	Lists of games collated from each year group. Decided that the games already purchased will be great for a 'maths library' and the school council will ask classes for 4 games that we can buy for each class for wet playtimes.	Elise to circulate these to Mrs Woolley and Mrs Kershaw. School Council Class Reps to bring lists to the next meeting. Y5/6 already have games Y4 Y3 and Y2 lists given to Mrs Kershaw to put in order requests. Mrs Kershaw to ask Y1 and R class teachers.
Worry box	The worry box is not being used appropriately. Worry box to become a school council ideas and suggestion box and worry boxes to be made for classes where the teacher feels it is needed.	Mrs Kershaw led an assembly on friendship and what is meant by 'bullying' to ensure children fully understand the difference between a fall out and bullying. Year 5/6 to re decorate the worry box and make is a 'School Council Suggestions Box' Y4 to make a poster to go with it on display.
Red Nose Day Fundraising Ideas NSPCC Fundraising Ideas	Red clothes, hats or crazy hair - Optional with mufti as some children may not have red clothing. Cake sale ...When? One themed activity per class and then show in	Mrs Kershaw to discuss ideas with staff and agree the final plan for the next meeting. celebration assembly at the end of the day.

School Council Playground Buddies.	School buddy arm bands instead of jackets, they are too small and get too hot. Working well especially with R and younger children.	Mrs Kershaw to get quotes for visible arm bands.
Parliament	Think of ideas in classes about what we can do in order to enter the competition.	Bring ideas to the next meeting.
AOB New School Council Reps needed in Y1 and Y3. Time for school council meetings.	Meeting start at 12:50 as we are waiting for younger children to finish eating and older children are eating very late.	Mrs Kershaw to ask class teachers to appoint new reps before the next meeting.  School Council Reps to go into dinner first and meeting to start at 12:50
