Service Jesus exemplified in his person, ministry and relationship with God, what it was to be called the "servant king". Christians believe that their calling is to follow Jesus' example according to their gifts or abilities. They believe that through serving God in others, "perfect freedom" will ultimately be found. Reflecting as a Whole School community: Some questions to consider: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • How are pupils encouraged to serve one another? • How are acts of service celebrated in school? • Are school members active in service in the wider community? • Which areas of the curriculum enable the children to consider the importance of service? • Numerous adults serve the school community behind the scenes. Are children aware of who they are and what they do? • How do children show their appreciation and gratitude to those who serve them? 	Responsibility The Bible teaches that life is a gift from God and it is our responsibility to use our talents and abilities in the best way we can. Reflecting as a whole school community: Some questions to consider: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • How are pupils encouraged to act responsibly in the classroom? • Is there a whole school policy regarding responsibility for the environment? • How much responsibility is the school council given to implement the decisions it makes? • Are pupils encouraged to think about where responsibility lies for ethical issues that they encounter? • Do pupils understand that attainment in the classroom tasks not only lies with the teacher but also with the individual?
