FRANCES OLIVE ANDERSON
Church of England (Aided) School

What does the school do well?

- Provides absolutely fantastic support to both pupil & parents.
- Provides a wonderful learning environment, facilities are great, no words can actually express the praise we give to Lea School – Thank you.
- The staff are very supportive, my daughter loves school & is thriving in her education.
- Listens.
- The school doesn't create stress or put pressure on the children, which helps promote acceptance, comfort & engagement.
- Making the children feel welcome & encouraging children of all ages to mix together.
- Providing a well-rounded child, putting values on being 'a good' person, kind, helpful etc, are extremely important.
- Interaction with parents on a personal level.
- My child enjoys coming to school & I think does everything possible to help children thrive.
- Encouraging through different types of learning.
- Keeps in touch with parents – Parent Hub is a brilliant idea.
- Since my children have started this school, their learning has improved drastically.
- My child is very happy & is encouraged to learn.
- Supports children.
- Support & teach.
- Creating a safe environment.
- Encourage & support children
- SENCO support
- Encourages imagination & creativity.
- Promotes enjoyment in learning.

What could the school do better?

- Nothing!
- Work more with children's behaviour.
- Create a 'family planner' or school calendar that each child can decorate & take ownership.
- We have not experienced anything that could or needs to be improved on.
- Nurture more 'artistic' talents, mindfulness.
- More visits, prep for 11+, prep for secondary.
- Communication about events/trips could be slightly better, more notice.
- More individual success rather than group.
- Individual communication learning plan.
