'Being different, Belonging together'

All of us are Christ's body, and each one is part of it. (1 Corinthians 12 v 27)

Truthfulness Christians believe that truth is revealed in the Bible and supremely in the person and life of Jesus Christ. Through Jesus' teaching we are given an insight into the nature of God and the way in which He means us to live. Reflecting as a Whole School community: Some questions to consider: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • How does the school encourage all members of the school community to be truthful in their dealings with one another? • How far does the school help pupils understand that life is about a search for truth and meaning? • How does the school community understand the concept of being true to oneself? (ie standing up for one's own beliefs) • Does the school equip children to make informed moral choices? 	Humility Christians believe that Jesus was both servant and king. He demonstrated this through His life, death and resurrection. Jesus taught his disciples what it means to be truly humble. Christians believe that they can serve God by demonstrating humility through their attitudes and actions. This approach to life runs contrary to many role models presented to children in the media and popular culture. Reflecting as a whole school community: Some questions to consider: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • In what ways do you engage all members of the school community to serve one another? • How do you encourage pupils to be empathetic and sympathetic to the experiences of others? • How do you create an ethos in which children and adults are confident to ask for help and to receive help from others?
